

People Jesus Met & How Jesus Helped

The Leper (Luke 5: 12 - 16)

Many people followed Jesus because He was a great healer. A man with leprosy had hoped Jesus could heal him too. He realised that Jesus was God's Son and fell down and worshipped Him. Jesus saw the man was in great need and speaking the words 'Be clean', He touched the man's skin and instantly he was made well again.

Jesus showed His power over disease.

Colour the pictures and the words that Jesus spoke to the man.

BE CLEAN

Underline the correct word(s) in the following sentences

Jesus had just been

Eating / Sleeping / Praying.

The man with leprosy

Fell down and worshipped Jesus / Climbed a tree to see Jesus.

Jesus said to the man

Get up and follow me / Go home and wash your skin / Be healed.

Jesus healed the man

In a week's time / Immediately / Once He had prayed at the temple

The man with leprosy recognised that Jesus was:

(Please tick the correct answer)

A great healer

A doctor

God's Son

Write down the first letter of each object to discover what God created us to do.

(Ephesians 2:10)

Jesus helped so many people while here on earth. He continues to help us in so many ways. Today, the Presbyterian Children's Society seeks to help people and follow His example. By praying for or giving to the work of the Society you can help children and young people in need too.

People Jesus Met & How Jesus Helped

The Lifeless (Luke 7: 11 - 17)

Although Jesus healed many people, there were only three times when He raised the dead to life again. This is important. Every time Jesus brought someone back to life He was showing us why God sent Him to earth from heaven - to give us life, new life only made possible through His death on the cross. Jesus showed His power over death.

Fill in the missing words. A word bank is provided to help.

One day Jesus was in a city called .

Many of Jesus disciples were with Him and there was also a crowd of people.

Jesus saw the of a young man, a widow's son.

Jesus saw that the widow woman was very .

He had on her.

Jesus touched the coffin and said to the young man .

Everyone praised God after seeing this miracle.

WORD BANK

COMPASSION NAIN BIG "GET UP!" UPSET FUNERAL

Colour the memory verse you have been learning today.

BE KIND TO ONE ANOTHER

Ephesians 4:32

Colour the picture

Jesus had done another amazing miracle and all the people who saw it praised God.

Fill in the missing letters

Jesus had done another M _ _ _ _ _

Complete the crossword

Down

1. Where was Jesus visiting?
2. How did the people respond?

Across

3. What was happening in the city?
4. Who was crying and upset?

Jesus showed great kindness and compassion to the upset widow. The Presbyterian Children's Society seeks to follow His example in caring for others today. Please pray and give to the Society and help Presbyterian children who are in need throughout Ireland.

People Jesus Met & How Jesus Helped

The Lunchless (Luke 9: 10 - 17)

Jesus went everywhere doing good. He encouraged the disciples to do the same. One day as He was teaching the people and healing the sick, they became hungry. The disciples had no food to give them to eat. Jesus shared what was brought to Him and fed many people. Jesus showed His ability to satisfy the hungry.

Jesus was near a town called Bethsaida. A large crowd of people followed Jesus. He was teaching them about the Kingdom of God and was healing people who were sick.

What was Jesus teaching the people about?

The K _____ of G _____ .

Near the end of the day, Jesus disciples came to Him, and told Him the people were hungry. They thought that Jesus should send the people away to get their own food. Instead, Jesus asked the disciples to give them food. Jesus disciples discovered a little boy had some food to offer Jesus.

Draw and colour a picture of the food the disciples brought to Jesus.

What did Jesus do before the people ate?

He T_____ G_____.

Draw a line to match the question to the correct answer.

How many loaves were there?

5000

How many fish were there?

12

How many men were fed?

2

How many baskets of food were left over?

5

Jesus knew the peoples need and He also knew what to do about it. He hasn't changed!
He still cares for people today.

Answer YES or NO. Does Jesus care for you when you are:-

Afraid

Asleep

Sad

This story shows us that Jesus cares about people and wants to help everybody. Jesus knew that the people were hungry and needed food. He cared about them and so He helped them. Jesus still cares about us and the things that we need.
He wants to help us too, if we will let Him.

Isn't it great to know that Jesus cares about us! Fill in your name in the sentence below.

Jesus cares about _____.

Today, the Presbyterian Children's Society seeks to help people and follow His example. By praying for or giving to the work of the Society you can help children and young people in need too.

People Jesus Met & How Jesus Helped

The Lawyer (Luke 10: 25 - 37)

Jesus was asked a tricky question by an expert in the Law. He answered by telling a story. He helps us understand that just as the Good Samaritan showed kindness to the injured man, we too should help others in need.
Jesus showed His ability to search the heart.

The man in Jesus story was travelling from _____ to _____.

Why was he in Jerusalem?

He was there to _____.

What happened to him along the way?

He was _____ by robbers

Word Bank

Jerusalem

Robbers

Jericho

Beaten

Worship

Three men came along and saw the injured man, alone and in need great need of help. Colour the name box for whoever was first to see the man Red; second, Blue; and third Green.

Priest

Levite

Samaritan

Only one of these sentences is correct. Find it and put an X in the box.

The Priest did not look at the man.

The Levite helped the man.

The Samaritan gave the man first aid.

When Jesus had finished telling the story He asked the Lawyer,
“Which of these three men do you think was a good neighbour?”

Circle the Lawyer’s answer.

“The man who was kind to him.”

“The man who did nothing to help.”

Colour the picture of the Samaritan helping the man attacked by the robbers.

Jesus told the Lawyer to go and do the same.

Jesus wants us to help
others in need.

Today, the Presbyterian Children’s Society seeks to follow Jesus example
in helping Presbyterian children all over Ireland.

By praying for or giving to the work of the Society you can help children
and young people in need too.